TUNE - BLOW, BLOW, THOU WINTER WIND.

1. Ere comes the Winter Wind,
   We would the World remind,
   Of our firm attitude, of our firm attitude,
   We still are just as keen,
   And to remain so mean
   Till Equal Pay's ensued.

2. Under the same cold sky,
   Why should we be passed by, ~~why should we be passed by,~~
   And benefits forgot,
   Do we our duties shirk,
   No! then why should we work
   And be remembered not?

TUNE - BLOW, BLOW, THOU WINTER WIND.

1. Ere comes the Winter Wind,
We would the World remind,
Of our firm attitude, of our firm attitude,
We still are just as keen,
And to remain so mean
Till Equal Pay's sealed.

2. Under the same cold sky,
Why should we be passed by, why should we be passed by,
And benefits forgot,
Do we our duties shirk,
No! then why should we work
And be remembered not?